

1980

St. Benet's Feast

1-12-80, The Barony of An Crosaire held St. Benet's Feast, which was nicknamed the "Night of Wine and Swine" According to the Historian "It was wonderful, there was an eight course feast with accompanying wines, roast suckling pig, a grand dessert of a cake, decorated with marzipan, in the shape of a Dragon's Tail. The feast was accompanied by period music. Everyone from An Crosaire attended along with members of Mathom Trove, Narval Dorado and the University of Florida Renaissance Ensemble.

Sein'ta Barentain Dei Masakura

2-23/24-80, The Barony of An Crosaire held "Sein'ta Barentain Dei Masakura" which was St. Valentine's Massacre in Japanese. This event was held at Otter Springs Campground and was tent camping only. Since this year's theme is 17th century Japanese culture, we request that you come Japanese or as a European visitor (it is the time that the Portuguese, Dutch and English began to arrive in Japan). Classes include: Japanese Etiquette, Lacquering, Japanese Costuming, Sushi cooking, and How to pronounce Japanese names. The list was to be with Katana, Naginata and Sword & Shield. Autocrats were Holtmar of Stonedown & Cher de Bellevue everything was very Nippon including the court and the campsite. People from An Crosaire attended along with representative folk from Sea March, Wyvernwood, West Isles, Narval Dorado, Oldenfeld, Starhaven, and Mathom Trove attended this event. Classes were taught in Japanese Etiquette (Seamus and Cedrin) Japanese Costuming (Mistress Kimi), Sushi Cooking (Sir Tetsuo), Japanese Names (Cedrin) Japanese Lacquering (Bamchut) and Kite Flying (Knikolos).

Revel

3-27-80, The Barony of An Crosaire held "Revel for a Wayward Herald" to honor the herald Dafydd Dragonstar.

Demo

On 4-19-80, The Barony of An Crosaire held a demo at the Gainesville Chapter of MS Society. A fashion show was held interspersed with a Show-and-tell of the crafts of the group. Seamus, Elspeth Jean, Sir Tetsuo, Mistress Kimi, Cher, Siobhan, Holtmar, Ara, Hollin, Shelli, Yari and Meredith attended.

Holy Relic of An Crosaire Revel

4-26-80, as in the flyer "Clan Alexander and the Barony of Wyvernwood are proud to announce a pilgrimage to Alexander Keype in the Honor of the Holy Relic of An Crosaire. The relic is a little known and powerful relic, cures melancholia and impotence." Pilgrimage badges will be awarded to all who complete the pilgrimage. Autocrat for this event was Lady Sieglinde von Truso

ASXV

Trimaris Memorial Tournament V

5-24/26-80 Seamus won the lyst and became the next Warlord of Trimaris. Cedrin received an Award of Arms. Seamus and Elspeth Jean were married. Cher and Siobhan received their colored in arms. A special celebration in honor of the wedding was Henna Night, a traditional bridal party of Arabic women the night before their wedding. The bride however absolutely refused to be hennaed. There was dancing, music, and small pastries.

Demo

7-4-80, The Canton of Mathom Trove held a demo, program of medieval songs in Palatka

Tigh-na-Baothaire Anniversary Revel

On 7-5-80 the household of Tigh-na-Baothaire, in The Shire of An Crosaire, held their Anniversary Revel. Elom and Ara were initiated into the household. The primary activities at the revel were dancing, singing, eating and talking. 19 members attended.

Herald's Picnic

The Canton of Mathom Trove sponsored a Herald's Picnic on 7-19-80 with business meetings alternating with dance classes.

Arts and Science Fair

9-5/7-80 The Barony of An Crosaire reported that Cedrin won 1st place in Oriental Costuming and pre-1100 costuming; Hollin won 1st place in Drawing and 2nd place in Illumination; Kawaishi won 1st place in Woodworking and 2nd place in Accessories; and Siobhan won 2nd place in general needlework.

Anniversary Revel

9-17-80, The Canton of Mathom Trove held an Anniversary Revel

Martinmas Moot

11-8/10-80, Martinmas Moot was held at Otter Springs Campground. Sir Merowald won the War Lord title and Hollin became Warlady. The Shire of An Crosaire's historian Cedrin reported that many things occurred at this event, the atmosphere was good, the feast was good, the list was interesting, and the King and Queen graced us with their presence, the UF Renaissance Ensemble played period music and there was joyous revelry. The Shire of Blackthorne won the Field of Cloth of Gold Award for its excellence in tent/site decoration. Elspeth MacNaughton tied for Paramount of Trimaris for costuming, Holtmar won first and second place for woodworking, Gunther won first place in calligraphy and Jannelle won 2nd place in weaving.

At court Holtmar and Hollin were given their AOA's. Hollin became apprenticed to Sir Merowald, and Holtmar became apprenticed to Mistress Kimi. Siobhan and Cher were given the Order of the Cross and Serpent; Master Tally, Cedrin, Elspeth-Jean, Seamus, Cher, Siobhan, Holtmar and Hollin were inducted into the An Crosaire baronial service award of the Serpent's Torque. Hollin became Seneschal of An Crosaire, as Siobhan gave it up to become Seneschal of Trimaris. Besides 25 members of An Crosaire reported attending, 10 members of Blackthorne were also listed as attending.

Poet Laureate - Elaine of Valoria
Troubadour Laureate - Warjna

Demo

11-22-80, Members of An Crosaire held a non-SCA demo at the Florida State Museum. Siobhan lectured on different types of Kimono through history, dying techniques and patchwork style kimono making, assisted in part by Cher, Cedrin, Jane and Elspeth-Jean with exhibits donated by Mistress Kimi, Cedrin and Seamus. The tea ceremony was explained and performed by Seamus, Siobhan acting as guest.

Oak Mood Revel

12-20-80, The Canton of Mathom Trove held "Oak Mood Revel"