St. Valentines Day Massacre

The Barony of An Crosaire invites the folk of Trimaris, Meridies and elsewhere to attend St. Valentine's Day Massacre, held at Otter Springs Campground on 2-11/13-83. This is a tenting event. This year's theme is a Scandinavian mid-winter festival and gathering.

The autocrats' request that folk try to attend dressed in the clothing styles of Northern Europe (this will also help maintain warmth, by Ymir!). By Odin, there will be the traditional list and subsequent massacre in the truest Trimaris traditions on Saturday.

After the Massacre, the field will be open to Norse challenge matches and Holmgangs.

Bring your axes and well wrought round shields. For those folk not in the list and those warriors who survive, there will be classes and games available; archery by Talfric

Bluntsword, games of the traditional and SCA favorites - Varpa (Danish horseshoes); medieval football; Clench-a-wench; and the ever popular "Boppe-ye-hegepygge", and others.

Listed autocrats were Lady Ara Arisdottir and Drottin Elom Eikinskjaldi. (From flyer, Talewinds, vol.2, no1, January AS XVII)
