From Their Majesties Talewinds June AS XXXV 2000 as usual St. Georges was fantastic, for those of you who missed it. We are sorry for you because it was a very fun day with plenty to do. Court was quick and feast just kept coming, very little waiting between removes, which is soothing to a starving populace! Of which I discovered I was one. I sat down and started to eat little bread and butter and suddenly I realized that I was ravenous! Fortunately (For the Baron of An Crosaire whose arm started to look quite tasty) Master Tally started to announce the food and the French onion soup came right out. Everything was quite good and I am embarrassed to say that I had 2 bowls of the soup and 2 servings of the delicious chicken as well as helpings of everything else because it was so good!

Huzzah to Lady Irene Kilpatrick and Honorable Lord Sebastian Halyburton for titillating my taste buds so! Many thanks to the autocrat of St. Georges Baroness Ysabela Celestine Manrique for the delightful event. She and Duchess Elspeth decorated the royal cabin and had bedding for me all ready when I drove in at 4 am, yes 4 am, and don't ask! It was truly a garden bower, bright pretty and incredibly soothing, all it needed was the sound of a creek trickling nearby for me to believe I was in the Fairy Queens bower in a Midsummer's Night Dream. The care, love and attention to detail that went into this was truly amazing and I felt so honored that they and MathomTrove would do so much to welcome me to their event. Now I know how true royalty feels. The Dream was made reality and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Queen Anastasiya
