St. Benet's Feast

January 5, 2002

Florida Bible Camp

The Barony of An Crosaire and family and friends gathered once again to celebrate our Yule festival. Lord Octavio won the "Pick 10 Words" contest at St. Benet's with a patriotic tale for our past, present, and future.

16th Annual Hoggetowne Medieval Faire

February 2-4 and 8-10, 2002

Alachua County Fairgrounds

This year's theme is King Arthur. For two weekends, step back in time to the middle ages with over 100 artisans, entertainment, food, jousting, living chess match and much more. Monday and Friday are "School Days" for the area school children. Fighters are needed at the fighting demonstration and at the archery booth (get used to being shot at and not flinching before you go to Gulf Wars). We are going for interactive participation this year – little or no static displays will be allowed unless it is background or additional materials to go with your active demonstration. Demo coordinator this year is Anne of Blackthorne. Flyer Caw Eesfee Shin January AS XXXVI 2002
