From the Baron and Baroness of An Crosaire

Sir Turoid Dunstan Armingier and Countess Dulcia MacPherson

Unto all our Dear Friends, do We, your Baron and Baroness bring greetings!

This summer has been a busy time for An Crosaire! The coming fall will find our Beloved Barony enriched with the elevation of three new Peers, and so many other honors have been heaped upon our members that we can scarcely recount them all. What we are proudest of is the infinite energy and fellowship found among our people, with each of us giving of our time, energy and knowledge within our means. Together, since the summer began with TMT, we have created a wardrobe fit for an Emperor and another one fit for an Empress. We have built a piece of "Rome" to add beauty to Trimaris' dream. We have researched and planned and created in preparation for Mayanmass Moot in November. We have planned and prepared for our own event of Michaelmas where we will host our friends in fun and fellowship. And we have begun to plan for Hoggetowne in the Spring. Everywhere An Crosairans go, we are seen working, helping and making our Barony, our Kingdom and the SCA a better place.

With so much work ahead of us in the fall and early spring, We hope that you are all looking forward to Michaelmas as much as We are. This event is for US - an event held by An Crosairans, FOR An Crosairans! We will welcome our friends from far and wide, naming them as honorary An Crosairans for the weekend. But this year Michaelmas will principally be a celebration of our friendship and joy in each other! It is our hope that every An Crosairan will lend a hand so that no one finds themselves working all weekend. It is our hope that we will all come together in fellowship to celebrate each other and enjoy the fruits of our collective labors. When we toast our newest Peers, we will be toasting the best in each of you - the Dream that is the SCA lives only because it lives in each of you!

Yours in fellowship and love,

Dulcia & Turoid
